GDIP Director-General

Pavlo Kryvonos

Dear Mr Pavlo Kryvonos!

The Organizing Committee of the International Forum ‘Education, Science, Innovation: Human Capital in the Post-War Recovery of Ukraine’ would like to express its special appreciation to you for your professional and effective moderation of Panel Discussion VIII, ‘International Cooperation in Education, Science and Innovation in Ukraine’, held on 12 December 2025.

Your role in ensuring a constructive dialogue, maintaining a balanced discussion among the speakers, and shaping the panel’s final conclusions was critically important to the overall success of the Forum. Thanks to you, the panel participants gained a deeper understanding of the key challenges and outlined practical ways to address them.

In order to finalize the Forum Resolution, which will be submitted to state authorities, we need to summarize all the results. We kindly ask you, as the panel moderator, to prepare and submit the key proposals and recommendations arising from your panel discussion. These materials will form the basis of the final document. Please send your proposals by 19 December 2025 to the following email address: upcforum2025@gmail.com.

With profound respect,

Chair of the Organizing
Committee,
